Rudolph Bumgardner, all of Staunton: next the maid of honor, Miss Estelle Martin of Baltimore, in pink organdie and carrying bridesmaid's roses, followed by the bride with her uncle, "m. T. McCue. They were met at the chancel steps by the groom and his best man, Dr. Howard Moore of Washington City. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white organdie trimmed with lace from her mother's wedding dress, with white hat and gloves and carried bride's roses. She was a lovely bride. The solemn ceremony concluded, the bridal couple drove to the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. John H. McCue, and then to the B. & O. depot, departing at 1:15 p. m. for Wood-stock, their future home. At Harrisonburg friends had prepared a delightful luncheon, and at Woodstock on their arrival a reception was tendered them at the home of the groom's par-ents.
